ORDER

On March 31, 2009, the Court entered an Order (Doc. #87) requiring back pay and fringe benefit contributions. One year later, on March 30, 2010, the Court entered an Order (Doc. #93) granting Petitioner's Motion to Close Proceedings (Doc. #92).

On April 12, 2010, interested party Lori Irish filed a Motion for an Extension of Time to Oppose Closing of Proceedings (Doc. #95) and Motion to Receive Complete File by interested party Lori Irish (Doc. #96). Although the Court recognizes that interested party Lori Irish has been imprisoned as a result of a separate criminal proceeding which arose from incidents occurring between 1 interested party Lori Irish and counsel involved in the instant civil action, the 2 Court finds no good cause to grant either of the Motions filed on behalf of interested

3 party Lori Irish.

4 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that interested Party Lori Irish's
5 Motion for an Extension of Time to Oppose Closing of Proceedings (Doc. #95) and 6 Motion to Receive Complete File by interested Party Lori Irish (Doc. #96) are 7 DENIED.
